v.

Richard Louis Arnold Phillips, Appellant

The Clerk of the Madera County Superior Court recently transmitted to this court the reporter's transcript of the hearing in this action held on January 30, 1991, before Mariposa County Superior Court Judge Richard L. McMechan. In accordance with this court's augmentation order filed February 19, 1997, the clerk of this court is ordered to file that transcript, and the appellate record is hereby deemed augmented to include it. Because the hearing involves a motion pursuant to Penal Code section 987.9, the transcript shall be filed under seal and a copy delivered to counsel for appellant but, pending further order of this court, not to the Attorney General.

Appellant may file a supplemental opening brief on or before September 8, 1998, limited to discussing the current status of issue five of the appellant's opening brief (pp. 125-134) and any new issue the new transcript might present. Respondent may file a supplemental respondent's brief replying to that brief within 20 days of its filing. Appellant may file a single reply brief replying both to the original respondent's brief and any supplemental respondent's brief. If appellant does not file a supplemental opening brief, the reply brief shall be due 20 days after the time to file such brief has expired. If appellant does file a supplemental opening brief, the reply brief shall be due 20 days after the filing of the supplemental respondent's brief or the time to file that brief has expired, whichever occurs first.
